

Winchester U3A Privacy Policy

Winchester U3A treats your privacy rights seriously. This privacy policy sets out how we will deal with your 'personal information'.

When you join you are asked to provide certain data. This includes:

- Name, Home address, Email address, Telephone number.
- Gift Aid Subscription preferences.
- Options to receive a paper copy of our Newsletter and Third Age Matters

We will also request that you provide consent for us to store and use your data. Your consent is required in order to ensure our compliance with data protection legislation.

We use your data:

- To provide our activities and services to you.
- For administration, planning and management of our U3A.
- To monitor, develop and improve the provision of our U3A activities.
- To communicate with you about your group activities.

We will send you messages by email, telephone and post to advise you of our activities and other activities relating to U3A.

We may disclose data about you:

- Internally to Committee members as required to run our activities.
- Externally – where we use an external system and with your consent eg our website

We have reviewed the Terms and Conditions of each Supplier and that their systems for holding your data are secure.

Where we need to share your data to anyone outside of our U3A we will seek your permission and inform you as to who the data will be shared with and for what purpose.

We keep your data so that we can provide our services to you. Your data will not be stored for longer than required to meet the needs of your membership.

To ensure the data we hold is accurate and up to date, members need to inform us about any changes to their data. You can do this by contacting the Membership Secretary by email or telephone at any time, details are in every Newsletter and on the website.

Should you wish to view the information that we hold on you, you can make a request by contacting the Membership Secretary. We will usually respond within 14 days of the request being made.

We have in place security safeguards to protect your data against loss or theft, as well as unauthorised access. Your membership data is held on a spreadsheet and only accessed by committee members – as appropriate.

This policy is available on our website or can be requested in paper form from the Membership Secretary. If we make any material changes we will make members aware of this via the regular Newsletter.

If you have any queries about this policy, or have any complaints about our privacy practices, please contact our Chairman by email or telephone. Details are in every Newsletter and on the website.
